

In our application we need a mobile application to store the SSI (Self servaign identity) which is issued for perticular users through SSI issure system. This mobile application is used by the normal citizens and specially our target audience is the ones who use the vehicle market place. When any third party person need to check the identity of any person that third party person can check that person's SSI ( which is stored in this mobile application ) and identify that person.

